

WELCOMING MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

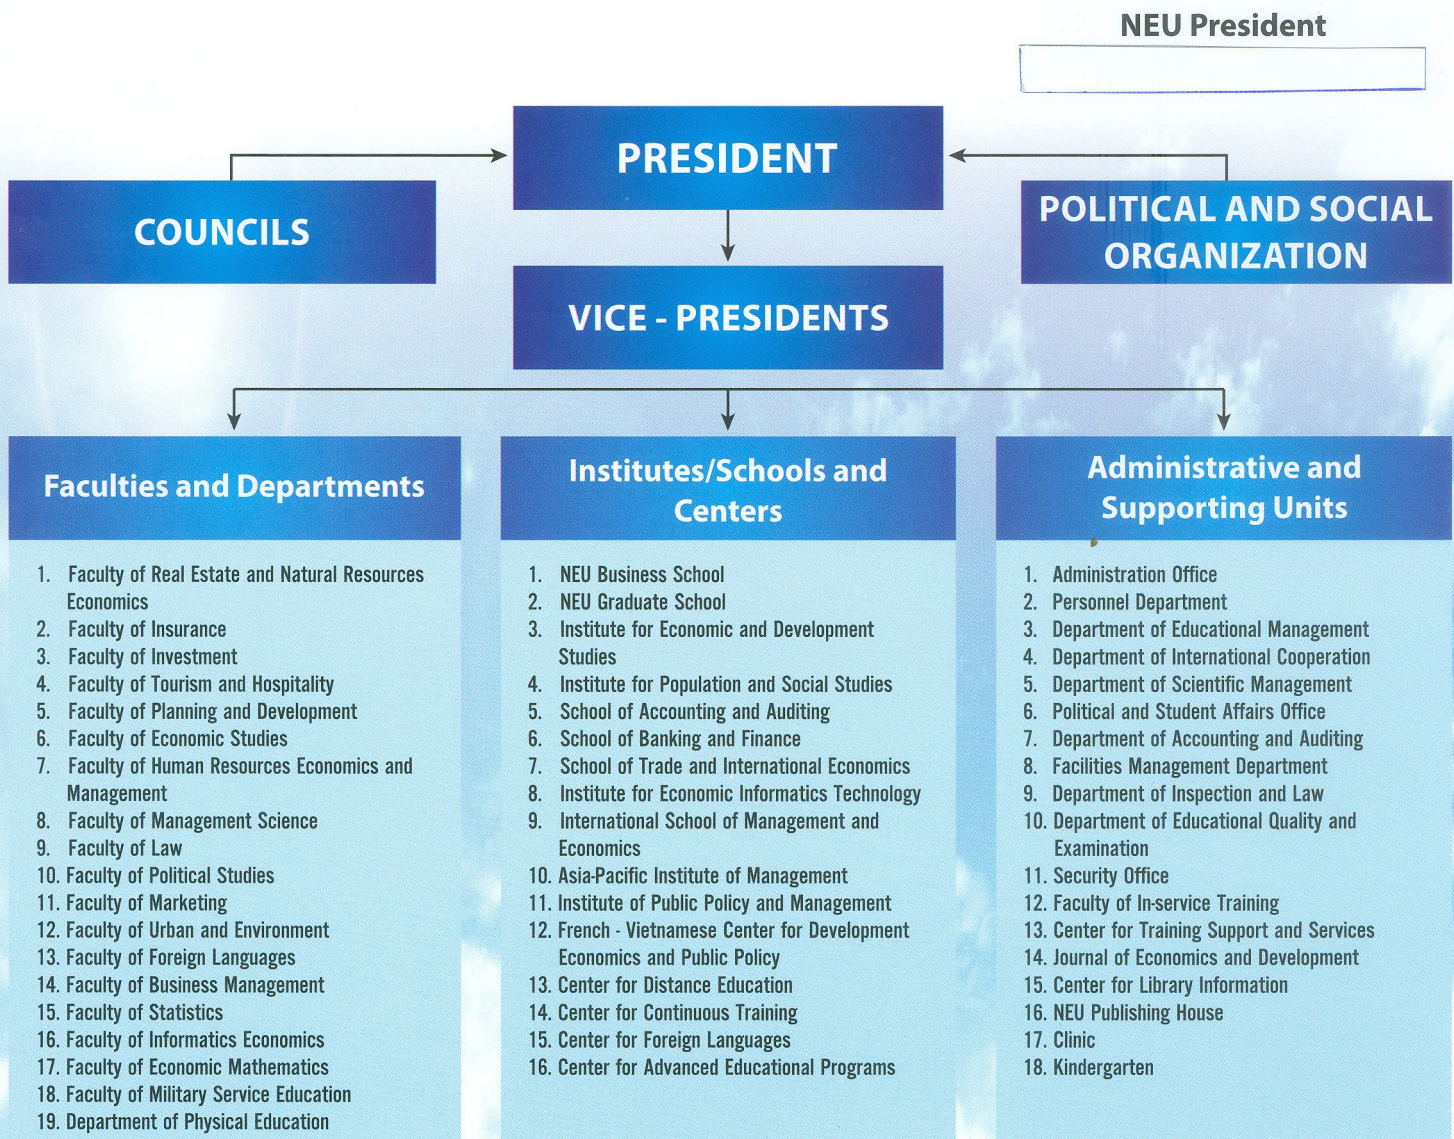

The National Economics University (NEU) is a leading university in the field of economics, public management and business administration in Vietnam. With its over 55 years of history and capable faculty staff, NEU offers a wide range of training programs with 8 majors, 45 different minors in bachelor, master and doctorate levels. NEU is also a prestigious research and consultant center with its extended academic publication and consulting works to the government of Vietnam on policy making, to business community on business development.

NEU is not only a recognized institution providing high-quality human resource to Vietnam's society, but also a faithful partner of governmental, non-governmental organizations, reputed research institutes and universities all around the world. NEU is chairing a network of more than 40 universities of Vietnam in economics and business administration and has become an important hub for academic exchange domestically and internationally. There are various international cooperative training and research programs developed by NEU in partnership with reputed universities, research institutes and organizations worldwide.

Vietnam is now on the way to international integration and industrialization. We are proud to contribute to this vital period of Vietnam with our prestige and experience. NEU is looking forward to accompanying with you in the coming development steps.

OVERVIEW OF NEU

NEU is one of the largest and top quality economics and business educations in Vietnam. It currently has over 45,000 students including 5,000 post-graduate ones, and 1,288 staffs (759 lecturers, 20 professors and 95 associate professors). NEU offers various modes of training with Phd, master, BA level, especially international programmes which are highly appreciated by partners.

NEU is a prestigious center for economics, business and management research and consultancy. The researches conducted by NEU mainly support the making of economic policies of the Vietnam's Communist Party, the Government, industries, localities, and business strategies of enterprises. Besides, it makes a significant contribution in providing central and local level organizations and agencies as well as enterprises in Vietnam with consulting services.

FACILITIES/STUDENT SERVICES

Location: Located in the center of Hanoi, NEU campus covers an area of 140,000 square meters with modern facilities provided for learning, research and teaching activities.

Lecture Hall System of the NEU currently includes over 120 well-equipped lecture halls with 60 seats each, some international standard classrooms and four meeting halls which are equipped with modern audio-visual facilities for workshop/conference and public defense.

Center for Information Archives and Library covers an area of 3,405 square meters comprising 526 square meters for reading rooms seating approximately 500 readers.

Dormitory: NEU's accommodation covers 6 newly built blocks that accommodate more than 3,000 students.

Canteen: The University three-storey modern canteen opens every day of the week and can serve 1,500 people.

Medical Service: NEU has a clinic with 2 doctors, 1 pharmacist, 1 physician and 2 nurses providing a full-time medical service for both staff and students of the University.

The Cultural House is the place for activities such as workshop/conference, celebrating events, training opening ceremony, graduation ceremony, and cultural and performing events.

Sport facilities: NEU's campus has a mini football field, a volleyball court, two basketball courts, two tennis courts and another ground for gymnastics with full sport facilities.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

Since its establishment, the NEU has always paid special attention to develop international academic relation. To date, it has been linked with over 150 academic institutions from over 35 countries. The University's international cooperation activities include not only cooperative training programs but also joint research projects and other activities such as lecturers and students exchanges. Thanks to the achievements in this field, the NEU has been praised and recognized by the Ministry of Education and Training of Vietnam, to be one of the few universities in the country with diversified and effective international operation programmes.

NEU INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION NETWORK

