Titre	Smart D8 Health And Well-being District Seeking To Appoint a Programme Manager
Description du poste	Smart D8 is an exciting and innovative health and well-being partnership led by Dublin City Council, Smart Dublin and the Digital Hub Development Agency in collaboration with a range of other stakeholders in health, research and enterprise development. The purpose of the partnership is to investigate how smart processes and digital innovation can improve the lives of people in Dublin 8 and encourage ongoing collaboration between local partners in the fields of healthcare and community development. To support the establishment of this innovative programme, the Smart D8 Partnership is seeking to appoint a Programme Manager on a two-year contract. Working alongside the Smart D8 partners and the wider Smart Dublin network, this role will coordinate, develop and drive a programme of activities over the next two years aimed at defining Dublin 8 as a Smart Health and Well-being district; a testbed for innovation. Smart D8 is seeking a resourceful professional who has at least five years experience of working in multidisciplinary projects which has included significant engagement and communication with diverse stakeholders. This is an exciting opportunity for someone who is immersed in the technology, health innovation and research sectors, and who is passionate about the benefits that innovative smart city projects can bring to healthcare and community well-being at a time of unprecedented change in the sector.
